

CURRICULUM VITAE

Personal data:

Name and Surname: Viktorija Simon Vuletić
Date of birth: 25. March 1959.
Place of birth: Belgrade
Family status: married, mother of two children

Education:

1978. finished Specialized Grammar School for Languages in Hungarian
1978-80. studied psychology on the University for Philosophical Sciences in Belgrade
1980-1985 studied ethnology/anthropology on the University for Philosophical Sciences in Belgrade

Work biography:

1984-1985. works as a tourist guide for the "Kompas" tourist agency in Subotica
1986. works for TV Novi Sad as a program assistant
1986-1990. works as a teacher of English language in the School for Foreign languages of Open University
1987. co-organizer of the first International Ecology Camp on Lake Ludos
1988. works as a secretary in the Real Estate Agency "Domus"
1989. takes part in the theater performance of "Kugla-Glumiste" theatre from Zagreb "Subotica and the Details of Resistance"
1989. works in the "Bata knjiga" bookshop situated in the National Theatre of Subotica
1988-1992. publishes short stories in the local magazine for literature "Rukovet"
1989. publishes a book of short stories "Easy-minded Strategy"
1990. translates and publishes parts of the Allan Watts book "Psychotherapy East and West"
1993. works as an English teacher in the Primary school "Jovan Jovanović Zmaj"
1995-1998. works as an English teacher in the private school for languages "Oxford"
1998. co-founder of the workshop for arts "Medijala"
2000. gets a job in the Municipal Museum of Subotica as a Custodian for Ethnology/Anthropology
2001. with dr Arpad Pap reorganizes the depot with 7.800 artifacts
2002. publishes a study based on scientific research "Dossier: Kentaur, The Identity of Multiethnic Population in Subotica"

2002. with dr Arpad Pap organizes an exhibition from the Non-European Collection of the Municipal Museum "East-Africa in the Time of Oscar Vojnic and His Contemporaries"

2002-2003 works on the legacy of the world-wide famous traveller, esperantist and writer Tibor Sekelj

2002-2007. organizes many guest exhibitions of traditional Serbian culture from different cities

2006. in the aim of modernizing museal contents organizes an exhibition of photographs "Memento" dedicated to the famous rock group "EKV" from Belgrade

2003-2007. works intensively on the Non-European collection of the Municipal Museum

2007-2008. starts the cooperation with the Museum of African Art in Belgrade and organizes there an exhibition "Kava and Betel" with the artifacts from South-East Asia and Oceania

2008. organizes the guest exhibition from the Museum of African Art "Primal Art"

2009. organizes the exhibition "Kava and betel" in the Municipal museum with an Indonesian musical and dance performance. The exhibition was opened by His Excellency Muhammad Abduh Dalimunthe, Ambassador of Indonesia

2009. During the "Museum Night" organizes the exhibition of traditional Javanese paintings

2009. starts the documentation of the African collection of ex-Ambassador of Yugoslavia, Mr. Marko Milasin which will be donated to the Municipal Museum

2000 - member of the Editorial Board of the Museum Annual "Museion"

2000- leads High Delegations of the Municipality in visiting the Museum and in the Town Hall

2003- publishes writings in the local newspapers and magazines and translates text from Hungarian and English for local Cultural Institutions