

Storytelling around Brussels

Zinnema and HoedGekruid vzw invites you! Join us for the PSSTIVAL, a festival of storytelling on different locations in Brussels.

Who? All creative people! Storytelling is possible in all the different art forms.

Where? A station, forest, café, cemetery, brewery, chappel, subway train, palace, swimming pool... Whatever you think of!

When? During the Week van de Amateurkunsten (WAK, week of amateur arts), 24th of April til 3rd of May 2009.

Have you got a story or an idea for a story? Would you like to tell it with words, drama, image, music, dance or movement? Would you like to organise a storytelling event in your neighbourhood? Or do you know an unusual location for storytelling?

Let us know! Call 02 555 06 00 or mail: psstival@zinnema.be or hoedgekruid@yahoo.com if you would like to join the project of HoedGekruid vzw.
